Future for autism

When one enters the world of autism, one opens the gate to a special and magical world. So we had to find a fairytale place. Between Helmos and Ziria, the mountain village of Feneos emerges. A wonderful microcosm full of history from ancient times full of legends with landscapes of stunning beauty

Our actions will begin in the spaces we have rented, a property of 12.5 acres which is a distance of 10 minutes from our two-storey house 160sqm where you are located in 1.5 acres.

The house of Future for autism

A place really worthy of being called the Corinthian Switzerland.

Our vision

Future for Autism is a non-profit company AMKE, which envisions a world where families and individuals affected by autism and developmental disorders are supported emotionally, psychologically, physically and socially.

Our mission

To inform, inspire and support therapists and caregivers of autistic individuals and support children who have suffered any form of abuse.

Προβλήματα που αξίζει να λύσουμε

Increased stress levels in families of autistic children.

02

Insufficient medical support and guidance.

---

Stress levels in mothers of autistic children were identified with those of veteran soldiers, according to research from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

The phenomenon of autism has left a significantly stronger imprint on today's society. A society that has lost its innocence, harmony, simplicity, joy, contact with nature and the core essence of life.

Increased stress, depression, mental and neurological disorders at all ages, juvenile diabetes and suicide rate among adolescents.

Insufficient medical support and guidance.

Autism is one of the most controversial medical issues of our time with different views on what autism is and how to deal with it, leaving parents and specialists divided rather than united on this journey.

This leads many parents to look for alternative ways to help their children, while at the same time there is a huge increase in drug delivery even to five-year-olds.

In America 84% of parents are concerned about the safety of these drugs and 83% are concerned about the side effects
